BUYER PRE-PURCHASE EXAMINATION AGREEMENT

Dear Buyer,

_____ (buyer), is the prospective purchaser or the agent assigned to purchase the horse named _____. The buyer acknowledges that Jacksonville Equine Associates have agreed to perform a pre-purchase examination on the horse upon the guidelines of this agreement.

The exam is performed for the buyer and not the seller. It is the buyer’s responsibility to inform the Veterinarian of the extent of examination and the selection of any diagnostic tests chosen. The Veterinarian who does the pre-purchase examination is not going to pass or fail the horse on the examination. The Veterinarian will provide you, the buyer, with the information regarding any existing medical problems and the horse’s overall soundness and health condition on the given day of the examination. The examination is not to be used as a prognosis for future use. The decision on whether or not to purchase the horse examined is solely the buyer’s choice and responsibility.

The buyer should be aware that this examination is not an in-depth evaluation or opinion of the horse’s temperament, ability, or aptitude for a particular discipline, or the value of the horse. A routine pre-purchase examination may not reveal subtle unsoundness, especially if the horse has not been in a consistent exercise program. The buyer should understand that there are limitations, and may not be seen by clinical, radiographic, and laboratory examinations, such as mild vision impairment, early Cushing’s Disease, digestive disorders predisposing colic signs, muscle disorders such as equine polysaccharide storage myopathy, recurrent airway obstruction, neurological conditions such as CSM, EPM, cervical spine arthritis, and/or some boney/ligament disorders that would only be visible on a CT or MRI.

The buyer is responsible for complete payment of pre-purchase examination at the time the pre-purchase examination is ordered by Cash, Check, Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, Care Credit by calling our office, or PayPal through our website at www.jaxequine.com.

Buyer acknowledges that this signed Buyer Pre-purchase Examination Agreement is to release, waive, discharge and dismiss Jacksonville Equine Associates / Southern Georgia Equine and all employees from any claims arising indirectly from the performance of the pre-purchase examination.
